Now, who is little Minnie, fair With rosy checks and curly hair The smiling girl; the lovely lass, Who called old Balaam ugly "Ass ?"

That little girl is happy now; No trouble rests upon her brow; For she has tusseled with an "Ass." The one that's called old Balaam Sass; Has pulled his ears, has made him bray, And called on him to kneel and pray.

Oh ! how could Minnie tell so quick, Unless she had received a kick. That frightful Balaam, ugly Sass,

Was nothing but a braying "Ass?" Now, who would think an "Ass" with ears That wave above his head like spears, That has a sweet-heart called "jinny," Could offer brays for little Minnie?

Now, little Minnie, fare-you-well, Your future fate no one can tell ; But when o'er Jordan's flood you pass, You're sure to meet old Balaam Sass.
